dig up the meaning

I like bread

I possess a particular fondness for bread.

AI & the Development of Language

AI is the “easy way out” when it comes to language

- sophisticated language
- well formed sentence structure

“The computer will fix it”

Technology & Social Development

Higher reliance on technology leads to social withdrawal

- play in isolation
- hooked by stimuli

How to Play

“The fluffy
feline proceeds quickly”

Player volcano will draw a card from the noun, verb, adjective deck. They will blow up this simple sentence.

The palaeontologists will try to dig up the original words And construct a new, simpler sentence under a time limit tiger? furry fuzzy

run
the fuzzy tiger ran

Players who guess any of the volcano's words gain an egg fossil

For those who crave an extra challenge, draw from the challenge deck

“The fluffy, fat feline proceeded to run quickly”

“The fluffy feline proceeded quickly”

Win a high score for the team, or compete against other palaeontologists for the most eggs

Cat

Noun

Run

Verb

What's Inside?

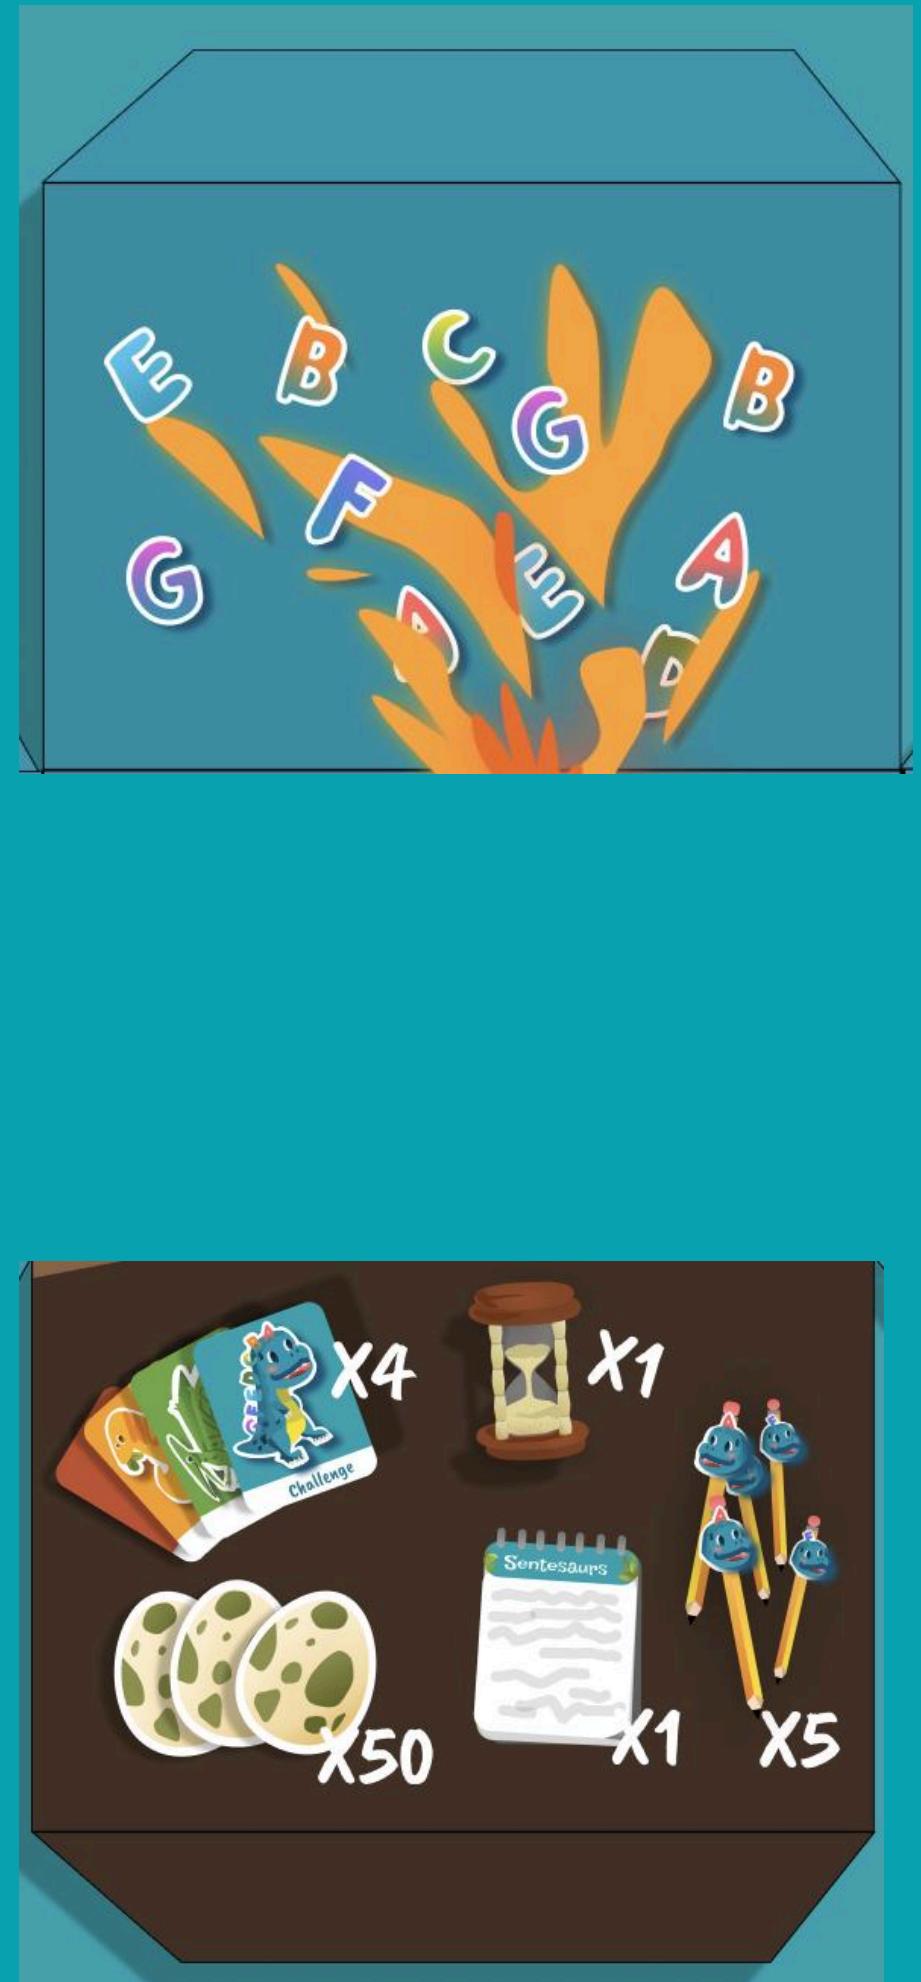

Mix it. Match it. Make it roar!

1. Draw 1 noun, 1 verb, and 1 adjective card.
(You can mix English and French!)
2. Create a silly sentence using your words.
Example: The bouncy toaster dances!
3. Other players guess the simple meaning
Example: ("The toaster jumps.") Brainstorm on your notepad.
4. Score points (dragon eggs) for guessing, creating, and having fun!

Want a Challenge?

Draw a challenge card and change your sentence to match the tense:
Past, Present, etc.

- Example: "The toaster dances" → "The toaster danced" (Past)
